CAPABILITY STATEMENT

CORPORATE OVERVIEW

I Will Survive, Incorporated, an award-winning organization, works with community leaders and members to strengthen community health in the workplace and in the home through global internship leader development, university partnership programming, corporate health training, innovative health initiatives using guidelines from the World Health Organization (WHO), National Institute of Health (NIH), and the Georgia Department of Public Health. We pride ourselves as a diverse and inclusive innovative organization founded by a combat veteran woman.

SERVICES PROVIDED

Financial Freedom for Fighters: This program addresses the financial strain that often accompanies a breast cancer diagnosis. It provides resources and support to help women navigate financial challenges, helping with medical bills, practical expenses, and financial planning for the future.

EmpowerHER Wellness Workshops: These workshops focus on holistic well-being, providing women with tools for physical and emotional strength during their breast cancer journey. Topics include nutrition, exercise, mental health, and self-care.

Beyond the Diagnosis Mentoring Program: Pairing breast cancer survivors with newly diagnosed women creates a supportive network. This mentorship offers guidance, shared experiences, and a sense of community, fostering resilience and hope.
